"Dramrifa Due"
Lawrence W. Rogers

—1972—

No tribute however long can say all that is there to be said about Mr. Rogers (Chief) as his friends and co-workers fondly called him for forty odd years. His life was rich in service to Bennett College, and through the students to the world. And he gave generously of his time and efforts to the business of serving Bennett College. He had a capacity for work—hard, unwitting work, day or night, holiday or no holiday and there were few fields of human activity with which he did not have at least a speaking acquaintance.

It will always be good to remember "Chief" Rogers as a loving, cheerful, and happy man in the simple life he shared with us briefly on the campus. And if any may look forward when at last he faces his maker to hearing the words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord," Chief Rogers was such a man. And so in the traditional African words of condolences, we say, "DRAMRIFA DUE"

Dedication

It is, indeed, a great honor to dedicate the 1972 BENNETT BELLE to Mrs. Blanche Reynolds Raiford. In her years of service to the Bennett family she has had the privilege to serve under three presidents. She is a woman of integrity, understanding, and patience. Her dedication and willingness to help her students have inspired many Bennett Belles. She has forever proven herself a valuable asset to us.

Mrs. Raiford, we dedicate the 1972 BENNETT BELLE to YOU.

Reflections

Reflections

Warmth blazes at me
In colors of blue, orange and reflections
Trying to reach me, but can't.

*I sit immobilized by it all,
Suckling in grief; despression, and disappointment*

Then lights invade my privacy with infinitesimal significance

*The shadows play around me,
Reflecting on lighter memories.
Blackness looms at me beautiful*

*To develop me in serenity of beauty I wish to recall,
Of loves I know I cherish
Here with me as assurance of permanency in us.*

*As it is, nothing is,
As it seems nor as it was,
There is no past or future*

*Only now as past part and being future
= Nothing is new and all is new
To recall all past but not future.*

*Time is point, it's being
But also past as present part,
Future reached is old.
All is with you, part you, you being.*

*What am I? Who am I?
A pitiless, littless shadow*

*Looming only in the background
Of thought, actions, feelings, and motives.*

*Life is a never ending circle
There's no point of beginning*

*Or any point with which it ends.
And where do we begin?*

*We are never free of what we create.
Nor are we or our creators free.*

*Where they begin is where it ends
But never is the beginning the real end.*

Coalition of Women Students

A seminar on "The Changing Status of Women" was held in Black Hall Assembly on February 14, 1972. The seminar was sponsored by the campus Coalition for Women Students. The coalition is a two-way communication channel between the Women's Bureau and young women students in approximately two hundred post-secondary institutions in the Southeast region. The purpose of the project is to help young women students prepare for their post graduate life.

Speakers were: Caron Balkany—Youth Activities Coordinate and full time students.

Attorney June Wakeford—Regional Director of Women's Bureau.

Arlene Winfuld—Social Science Advisor on Economic Status of women, Women's Bureau, Washington, D.C.

Our campus representative is Miss Mabel L. Gailliard.

On March 17th the annual Senior Day Activities were held. The seniors were robed by their sophomore sisters during the ceremony at 4 p.m. in the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel. Following the robing the seniors attended a special banquet given by the sophomore class in the David D. Jones Student Union.

Senior Day '72

*Come and walk with me along
A path, seldom or never trod by
Feet like yours and mine.*

*Looking with eyes never opened before,
And seeing with minds christened by curiosity*

Through times of unstabled triumphs and Unaccepted defeats, we will go.

*Walking softly, as strangers do,
We will peer through thin nets
Hung in once forbidden splendor,
Revealing the all in what is right.*

*We will take time for
The minute importances of life
Like the sound of silence.*

*Time will pass
Unknown to us*

In regimental colors of dawn and dusk.

*And we will know what it means to miss
Pear trees, Bird dogs, and Daddy's sharp-witted discipline.*

*For the first time
Enjoy rain . . . baptism without commitment,*

*The tingling pleasure of being wet
Without thought of a chill.*

We will share tears and laughter

In reverse . . .

*Crying smiles . . . laughing frowns . . .
Reliving the force of our present existence.*

Wake up.

Move out.
